CANADA AS A CUSTOMER: UNITED STATES FOREIGN MILITARY SALES

Authorized by the U.S. Department of State and implemented by the U.S. Department of Defense, the U.S. Foreign Military Sales (FMS) program is a mechanism for facilitating responsible arms sales that strengthen bilateral defense relations and enhance interoperability between U.S. forces and foreign military partners.

In 2023, a record high year for sales conducted under the program, Canadian acquisitions from the U.S. Foreign Military Sales program accounted for 71% of all projected Canadian major defense equipment expenditures and 8% of total U.S. sales financed by foreign partners.

Since the introduction of Canada's Defense Policy, "Strong, Secure, Engaged", in 2017, Canada has seen remarkable growth in its U.S. Foreign Military Sales portfolio, tripling in value to approximately $13 billion USD.

Canada contributes significantly to the economic security of the U.S. Canadian purchases directly support American jobs. Canada has been part of the U.S. Foreign Military Sales program for over half a century and ranks among the top 20 global customers, top 5 NATO customer nations and the largest customer in the Americas.
